APP for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with the petitioner along with his wife had gone to the house of the house, the petitioner pointed pistol on the head of the informant and took Rs. 1,00,000/- from a bag and threw other documents.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that out of the sections levelled in the First Information Report all other sections areailable except Section 379 of the IPC and the same is not made out against the petitioner in the present facts and circumstances of the case. It is submitted that the petitioner's father had made an agreement with the informant's husband for purchasing a land for Rs. 11,60,000/- which was paid to him through cash and cheque and to substantiate the same, the petitioner has brought Annexure- P/2 on record. It has further been submitted that the informant's husband had given three cheques in favour of petitioner's father which were all dishonoured and the petitioner had actually gone to the house to resolve the said issue and a false case under Section 379 of IPC has been lodged against him for oblique motive.

5. Learned APP for the State however, opposes the application on the ground that the petitioner has two criminal antecedents in response to which it has been stated that one of the case is under Section 498A of the IPC and the petitioner is on bail in both the cases.
