3. As per allegation, the police had secret information that the petitioner and co-accused/Raju Mandal and seven unknown persons do trade of illicit liquor and they bring illicit liquor in orchard situated in the Parsa village and stealthily sell it. As per further case of the police, when they reached the said orchard, 10-12 persons were unloading the illicit liquor and seeing the police, they fled away and despite the efforts of the police, they were successful to flee away. But on search, 1330.2 litre of illicit liquor was recovered from the pick-up van bearing Registration No. BR-31G-7338.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the Petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case on the basis of suspicion on account of one similar criminal antecedent, whereas he has nothing to do with the alleged offence. He further submits that the petitioner is neither the owner of the seized contraband, nor is he owner of the vehicle involved in the alleged offence, nor was he driving it. He further submits that no prima facie case is made out against the petitioner and hence, the present anticipatory bail petition is maintainable.

5. It is also stated in paragraph no. 2 of the bail petition that the petitioner has not moved this Court earlier either for anticipatory bail or regular one in the instant case.

6. It has further been stated in paragraph no.3 of the bail petition that the petitioner has one criminal antecedent.

7. However, learned APP for the State vehemently opposes the prayer of the Petitioner for bail.

8. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this petition is allowed, directing the petitioner, above-named, to be enlarged on bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt / production of a copy of this order, on his furnishing bail bonds in the sum of Rs. 10,000 /- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned concerned Court Below, in connection with Shivajinagar P.S.
