CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

2      11-02-2025                      Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned
A.P.P. for the State and learned counsel for opposite party no. 2.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a complaint case punishable for the offence under Sections 406, 420, 409, 384 and 385 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 138 of the N.I.Act.

3. As per the prosecution case, pursuant to compromise between the parties, two cheques of one lakh each were issued by this petitioner, which got dishonoured due to insufficient fund.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that entire prosecution case is false and concocted. In fact, alleged both cheques were given to the complainant for the purpose of business transaction, but due to oblique motive, the complainant presented the same in the bank, which got bounced. Petitioner has already paid entire money to complainant. Moreover, the dispute is purely of a civil nature, for which, complainant has got alternative remedy.

5. Learned counsel for opposite party no. 2 opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, in the event of arrest/surrender before the Court below within a period of eight weeks from today, let the above named petitioner be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail-bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned C.J.M., Patna in connection with Complaint Case No. 6295(C) of 2023, subject to condition as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
