4. The learned counsel submits that petitioners have been falsely implicated in the instant case by the informant for the reason that Manoj Mandal who was also a petitioner in ABP no.299/2024 though not a petitioner in the instant anticipatory bail application had instituted Rangra P.S. Case No.58/2024 against unknown accused about missing of his wife Shobha Devi, the dead body of Shobha Devi was recovered during the course of investigation, in which husband of the present informant along with Sonu were arrested, as such it is submitted that the present false case has been instituted by the informant to coerce Manoj and his family members into submission so that they do not pursue Rangra P.S. Case No.58/2024. It is also submitted that petitioners will not abscond rather will co-operate in the investigation to prove their innocence.

5. Learned A.P.P. for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners above-named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned trial court where the case is pending/successor court in connection with Gopalpur (Rangra O.P.)
