2 18-12-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

2. The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Complaint Case No. 264 of 2024 for the offence under Sections 420, 467, 468 and 34 of the I.P.C.

their father amongst themselves since long back. 5. Learned APP opposes the prayer for bail.

6. Keeping in view the fact that petitioner is bona fide purchaser of the land after giving the consideration amount and considering the fact that this is purely a Civil dispute as also the clean antecedent of the petitioner, this Court is inclined to extend him the privilege of anticipatory bail.

7. Let the petitioner be released on bail in the event of arrest or surrender within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of this order, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten thousand) each with two sureties of like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Banka, in connection with Complaint Case No. 264 of 2024 subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 482 of B.N.S.S., as also
