ORAL ORDER

2 18-12-2025 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

2. The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under sections 105 of B.N.S.

3. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner has established physical relationship with the mother of the informant due to which, she got pregnant and it is alleged that the petitioner has made mental pressure and on 20.08.2025, the petitioner has assaulted the mother of the informant. It is alleged that on 25.08.2025, the mother of the informant died.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the deceased was step-mother of the informant and there has been dispute between them. From perusal of the order of the learned trial court, it is clear that the deceased was having a fetus of 35 weeks and she died due to abortion of the fetus. There is allegation of forceful administration of medicine to the deceased by the petitioner. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that in this case, the occurrence is of 25.08.2025 and the case has been lodged on 28.08.2025. There is delay of three days in lodging the FIR and there is no proximity in the allegation and the death. A statement has been made in para-3 of this petition that the petitioner has got no criminal antecedent. Moreover, he is languishing in judicial custody since 07.10.2025.

5. Learned APP appearing for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer of regular bail.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. The above named petitioner is directed to be released on bail in connection with Shivsagar P.S. Case No. 283 of 2025 on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned C.J.M., Rohtas at Sasaram.
