CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ALOK KUMAR SINHA
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 24-12-2025

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, learned counsel for Kameshwar Singh Darbhanga Sanskrit University, Darbhanga and learned counsel for respondents-State.

2. With the consent of the parties, the present writ application is being disposed of at this stage itself.

3. In the present writ application the petitioners have prayed for the grant of following reliefs:

“(i) For issuance of an appropriate direction, order or writ in the nature of mandamus commanding the respondents to treat the service of the petitioner from the date of their recommendation by the Bihar College Service Commission i.e. w.e.f. 10.10.2002 or at least from the date of submission of joining by the petitioners in the college pursuance to the recommendation made by the Bihar College Service Commission and to that extent the Memo No. 1971, dated 14.02.2023, in so far as, it is related to the petitioners may kindly be quashed.

(ii) For further commanding the respondents to treat the service of these petitioners under the old pension scheme keeping in view that these petitioners were selected and appointed pursuant to advertisement dated 06.11.1993 and 03.10.1994 respectively issued by the Bihar College Service Commission and it is immaterial when the services of the petitioners were approved by the University for the simple reason that it was the duty of the University to approve the service and to that extent quashed the letter issued by the University to apply online for PRAN No. for the purpose of treating their service under new pension scheme.

(iii) For any other relief/reliefs to which the petitioner may be found entitled to, in the facts and circumstances of the case.”

4. After advancing some argument, learned counsel for the petitioners submit that the petitioners are ready to file a detailed representation before the Registrar of Kameshwar Singh Darbhanga Sanskrit University, Darbhanga and pray that the same may be directed to be disposed of within a fixed time frame after giving an opportunity of hearing to the petitioners.

5. To the aforesaid prayer being made by learned counsel for the petitioners, learned counsel appearing for the respondent University and learned counsel for respondent-State do not have any objection.

6. Considering the limited nature of prayer being made by learned counsel for the petitioners, this writ application is disposed of granting liberty to the petitioners to file a detailed representation before the Registrar, Kameshwar Singh Darbhanga Sanskrit University, Darbhanga within one month from the date of passing of this order. If such a representation is filed by the petitioners, the same shall be considered and disposed of within a further period of six months from the date of filing of the representation, after giving an opportunity of hearing to the petitioners. Needless to emphasize that the final order which shall be passed by the Registrar, Kameshwar Singh Darbhanga Sanskrit University, Darbhanga should be a reasoned and speaking order and in case the petitioners are found entitled to the relief, which they would be claiming in their representation then the same should be extended to them within a further period of three months from the date of passing of the final order.

7. With the aforesaid observation and direction and liberty as granted, the present writ application stands disposed of. Pending I.As, if any will be deemed to have been disposed of.
