 for de facto complainant

1. Learned advocate for the petitioner submits she is no way related to the de facto complainant/wife and prays for anticipatory bail.

2. Learned advocates for the State and de facto complainant oppose the prayer for anticipatory bail.

3. We have considered the materials on record. It is alleged petitioner is the paramour of the husband of the de facto complainant/wife. Allegations against her are general and omnibus. Keeping in mind the aforesaid facts we are of the opinion custodial interrogation is not necessary and petitioner may be granted anticipatory bail.

4. Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 482(2) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita and on condition that she shall appear before the jurisdictional court and pray for regular bail within a period of four weeks from date.

5. The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
