1. Heard the learned advocates for the parties.

2. We have considered the materials on record. No narcotic substance was recovered from the petitioner. His complicity has transpired from the statement of the co-accused before police officer which is inadmissible in law. Petitioner undertakes to co-operate with investigating agency for interrogation. Under such circumstances we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

3. Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 482(2) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita and on further condition that he shall meet the investigating officer once in a week until further orders. He shall appear before the jurisdictional court and pray for regular bail within a period of four weeks from date.

4. The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
