Vs.
Chittaranjan Pal & Ors.

...for the petitioner

On the prayer of the learned advocate appearing for the petitioner, leave is granted to the learned advocate-on-record of the petitioner to amend the cause-title of the civil revision application, here and now.

This application under Article 227 of the Constitution of India is at the instance of the plaintiff praying for a direction upon the learned Civil Judge (Sr. Division), 1st Court-in-charge at Tamruk, Purba Medinipur to dispose of the Title Suit No. 11 of 2007 expeditiously.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the preliminary decree was passed on November 30, 2013 and thereafter the final decree proceeding started. Partition Commissioner was appointed who submitted a report. He submits that the learned trial judge should be directed to dispose of the final decree proceedings in the suit for partition expeditiously.

In view of the order sought and proposed to be passed, there is no necessity to direct issuance of any notice upon the opposite parties. However, the learned advocate-on-record of the petitioner shall be obliged to forward a copy of this application along with this order, upon the opposite parties or upon the learned advocate representing them before the learned trial judge.

From the order-sheets appended to this civil revision application this court finds that a date was fixed for filing objection to the report of the Partition Commissioner.

In the light of the submission made by the learned advocate appearing for the petitioner, CO 283 of 2025 stands disposed of by requesting the learned Civil Judge (Sr. Division), 1st Court in-Charge at Tamruk, Purba Medinipur to make an endeavour to dispose of Title Suit No. 11 of 2007 as expeditiously as possible without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties.
