Rana Bhattacharyya
Vs.

The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Sabyasachi Bhattacharjee
Mr. Arpit Saha
Ms. Barnali Pal
....for the petitioner

Mr. Barjarshi Basu
Mr. K. M. Hossain
....for the State

Report filed on behalf of the State is taken on record. Copy of the same is supplied to the learned counsel for the petitioner.

It appears from the report that the account of the writ petitioner has been unlocked by keeping a freeze of certain amount of Rs. 34,825.95/- in his account as the disputed amount as per reply of the NCRP.

Therefore, the prime grievance of the petitioner that the bank account of the petitioner has been totally frozen has been redressed.

At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner submits there is an amount of Rs. 50,000/- which has matured under a tax savings scheme in the account. But, the bank is not allowing the petitioner to withdraw the same.

This gives right to a separate cause of action.

Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed of, without any further order, even as to costs.

However, the petitioner shall be at liberty to file a fresh application in the event a separate cause of action has arisen or arises.

Urgent photostat certified copies of this order may be delivered to the learned Advocates for the parties, if applied for, upon compliance.
