Gobardhan Mal

Vs.

The State of West Bengal and others.

1. No one appears in support of the writ petition, when the matter is called on.
2. The dispute leading to institution of the present writ petition has a civil flavor and disputed question of facts is also involved in this writ petition, which can only be determined after evaluation of the evidence.
3. In view thereof, I am of the view that the present writ petition cannot be entertained and the same is, accordingly, dismissed.
4. There shall, however, be no order as to costs.
