The petitioner is in custody for almost a year and prays for bail. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there is no prima facie material connecting the petitioner to the crime.

Opposing the prayer, learned counsel for the State submits that pursuant to leading statement of the petitioner, his blood stained shirt was recovered from his house, a torn portion of which was recovered from the place of occurrence. The torn portion has matched with the remaining portion of the shirt. The blood stains on the shirt have also matched with that of the offending weapon.

Considering the gravity of the offence and the evidence prima facie connecting the petitioner to the offence, the prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

Learned counsel for the State submits a report wherefrom it appears that the prosecution proposes to examine four more witnesses.

The learned Trial Court is directed to expedite the trial without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties.

The application for bail is accordingly disposed of.

Case diary be returned.

All parties shall act on the basis of server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties expeditiously after complying with all requisite formalities.
