Learned counsel for the State of West Bengal is present.

The present writ application has been preferred praying for direction upon the respondents mainly the respondent no. 2 to consider the petitioner's application for registration which has been submitted on 28.03.2023.

It is further submitted that till date the application is pending and the respondent no. 2 and his men and agent are not taking any action on the said application and as such the petitioner is being
