1. Learned Counsel for the petitioner submits he is the husband of the victim. She suffers from psychiatric ailments. Petitioner has been falsely implicated. He prays for anticipatory bail.

2. Learned Counsel for the State produces the case diary.

3. We have considered the materials on record including the medical papers. Statements of witnesses and medical papers show victim was suffering from anxiety and psychiatric problems. Keeping in mind this fact we are of the opinion custodial interrogation is not necessary and he may be granted anticipatory bail.

4. Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 482(2) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita and on condition that he shall appear before the jurisdictional court and pray for regular bail within a period of four weeks from date.

5. The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
