....for the State

1. Learned Counsel for the petitioners submits they are husband and in-laws of the victim lady. Instant case arose out of a matrimonial dispute. They pray for anticipatory bail.

2. Learned Counsel for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail.

3. We have considered the materials on record. Injury report shows no external injury on the victim. Under such circumstances we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to conditions.

4. Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 482(2) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita and on further condition that they shall meet the investigating officer once in a week until further orders. They shall appear before the jurisdictional court and pray for regular bail within a period of four weeks from date.

5. The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
