CO 955 of 2025

Dipankar Biswas
Vs.
Arundhati Biswas nee Pal

Dr. Sutanu Kumar Patra
Mr. Saptarshi Dutt

...for the petitioner

This application under Article 227 of the Constitution of India is at the instance of the husband praying for a direction of expeditious disposal of Matrimonial Suit No. 69 of 2016 by the learned 5th Additional District Judge, Barasat.

Dr. Patra, learned advocate for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is not a defaulter in payment of alimony.

In view of the order sought and proposed to be passed, there is no necessity to direct issuance of notice. However, the petitioner shall be obliged to forward a copy of the application upon the opposite party or the learned advocate representing her in the trial court.

Considering the fact that April 9, 2025 has been fixed for argument, there is no necessity to pass any peremptory direction.

However, CO 955 of 2025 is disposed of with the hope and trust that the learned 5th Additional District Judge, Barasat will make all endeavours to see that the matrimonial suit is disposed of expeditiously, preferably by the end of June, 2025, without giving any unnecessary adjournments to either of the parties.
