Heard learned counsels for the parties.

Petitioner is in custody for about three years and prays for bail.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there has been little progress in trial after his bail prayer was rejected earlier.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer.

I have perused the material on record.

The petitioner has been seen at the place of occurrence by the victim as well as neighbours. The medical evidence supports the contention of the victim. Offences, if proved, shall attract mandatory life imprisonment.

Considering the material on record prima facie suggesting active involvement of the petitioner in the crime, prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

The learned trial Court is directed to expedite the trial without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties.

The bail application is disposed of.

Case Diary is returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
