Mr. Manas Kumar Das

... for the Defacto Complainant

The petitioner is in custody for about ten months and prays for bail.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the victim committed suicide by consuming poison and the petitioner took her to the hospital after the incident. He has been falsely implicated. No charge has been framed under Section 328 of the Indian Penal Code. He prays for bail.

Learned counsels for the State and defacto complainant oppose the prayer.

Heard learned counsels for the parties.

I have considered the material on record. The petitioner appears to be the husband of the hapless victim who died within seven months of her marriage. Considering the gravity of the offence and prima facie involvement of the petitioner therein prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

The application is disposed of.

Case Diary be returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
