Item No.11.
Court No.06.
S. De

C.O. 1195 of 2025

Dr. Rajarshi Sengupta.
Vs
Smt. Bharati Paul nee Sengupta.

Mr. Subhasish Majumdar, ...for the petitioner.

This application under Article 227 of the Constitution of India is at the instance of the husband praying for a direction upon the learned Additional and Sessions Judge (Fast Track Court No.III), Barrackpore, North 24 Parganas to dispose of the Matrimonial Suit No. 1448 of 2020 expeditiously.

In view of the order sought and proposed to be passed, there is no necessity to direct issuance of any notice upon the opposite party. However, the learned advocate-on-record of the petitioner shall be obliged to forward a copy of this application along with this order, upon the opposite party or upon the learned advocate representing the opposite party before the learned Trial Judge.

From the order-sheets appended to this application, this Court finds that August 25, 2025 is fixed for hearing of the application dated November 23, 2024.

The learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the Matrimonial Suit has been pending from the year 2020 and the learned Trial Judge has adjourned the hearing of the Matrimonial Suit on several occasions.

In the light of the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, C.O. No.1195 of 2025 stands disposed of by requesting the learned Additional and Sessions Judge (Fast Track Court No.III), Barrackpore, North 24 Parganas to take up the hearing of the application dated November 23, 2024 on the next date fixed, if the same is otherwise ready for hearing, and make an endeavour to dispose of the same as expeditiously as possible without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties.

After disposal of the application, the learned Trial Judge shall make an endeavour to dispose of the Matrimonial Suit without granting any unnecessary adjournments to either of the parties.
