... for the petitioners.

Mr. Imran Ali
Ms. Rajashree Tah

... for the State

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the alleged incident happened after five years of marriage. The petitioners are the parents-in-law. The husband is alleged to be the main culprit. He was granted anticipatory bail by the Sessions Court.

Considering the fact that the husband was the prime accused and was granted bail and charge-sheet has been submitted, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

In the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (rupees ten thousand) each with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting

Officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 corresponding to Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023 and on the further condition that the petitioners shall not threaten or intimidate witnesses.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
