Report submitted by the State is taken on record.

The petitioner is in custody for more than seven years. His prayer for bail was turned down by this Court considering the merits of the case on earlier occasions. The petitioner seeks bail on the ground of his prolonged detention.

Learned counsel for the State submits that trial is at its fag end and only the examination of the Investigating Officer is remaining.

On merits, the petitioner does not deserve to be released on bail.

The prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

Since the learned counsel for the State submits that trial shall conclude within two months from the next date of evidence fixed before the learned Trial Court, the learned Trial Court is directed to take the proceeding to its logical conclusion, as expeditiously as possible without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties, in accordance with law.

The application for bail is accordingly disposed of.

Case diary be returned.

All parties shall act on the basis of server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties expeditiously after complying with all requisite formalities.
