The petitioner is in custody for more than three years and prays for bail.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there is no evidence connecting the petitioner to the alleged offence.

Learned counsels for the State and the defacto complainant oppose the prayer.

It appears that the trial is at its fag end and only the Investigating Officer remains to be examined. Some of the witnesses have named the petitioner suggesting his prima facie involvement in the alleged offence. Considering the material on record prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

Learned trial Court is directed to expedite the trial without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties.

The application is disposed of.

Case Diary is returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
