

Sl.No. 49 05.05.2025
Court No. 35
G.S.Das

WPA 8597 of 2025

Abdul Said
-Vs-
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. S. Purkayastha
... for the Petitioner(s)
Mr. Rajarshi Basu
Mr. Subhendu Sengupta
... for the State-respondent(s)

The petitioner is aggrieved by the fact that the private respondents have forced themselves and destroyed his crops. The petitioner, to that effect, informed the police authorities, but no action has been taken.

Learned advocate for the State has submitted a report which reflects that the learned Civil Judge, Berhampore, Murshidabad has already passed an order of injunction. Consequently, the police authorities have also drawn up a proceeding under Section 126/135(3) of the BNSS to avoid any breach of the peace.

Since the learned Civil Court is already in seisin of the issues, as such, in respect of right, title, interest and usages of the property is concerned, the petitioner, if so advised, would approach the civil court and, if there are any infraction of the status quo order, the petitioner would, if so advised, also approach the concerned civil court for a direction upon the police authorities for rendering police assistance for violation of the status quo order.

In the meantime, the police authorities would ensure that there is no breach of the peace and/or tranquility taking place as also no untoward incident resulting because of the strained relationship existing between the parties.

With the aforesaid observations, WPA 8597 of 2025 is disposed of.

Pending application(s), if any, is also disposed of.

Report so submitted be kept with the record. A copy of the report be handed over to the petitioner.

Parties to act on a server copy of this order duly collected from the official website of the Hon'ble High Court, Calcutta.
