Ct. No.23.

In the High Court at Calcutta
Constitutional Writ Jurisdiction
Appellate Side

WPA 6584 of 2010

Ranjan Paul

Vs.

The State of West Bengal & Ors.

1. None appears on behalf of the petitioner and no accommodation is prayed for.
2. Even on earlier occasion, none appeared on behalf of the petitioner.
3. This case is pending since 2010, almost 15 years passed. No affidavit-in-opposition and affidavit-in-reply have yet been filed despite direction by the Co-ordinate Bench vide order dated 22nd April, 2010.
4. The writ petitioner has filed this writ petition seeking direction upon the respondents and their men and agent for absorption of the petitioner, who has requisite qualification for the appointment for the post of Assistant Teacher in the Primary School under Baranagar Municipality considering the qualification and service rendered by the petitioner without an information since 2004 in the same grade against permanent vacancy and other consequential relief.

5. Considering the nature of prayer and long pendency of the case, this Court is bound to assume that the petitioner is not interested to proceed with the case anymore either on the ground that the purpose of filing this writ petition has been resolved or that he has abandoned his prayer due to passage of time.

6. In view of the facts and circumstances of this case, the writ petition stands dismissed without any order as to costs.

7. The interim order, if any, stands vacated.

8. All parties are to act on a server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
