Report submitted by the State is taken on record.

The petitioner is in custody for more than six years and prays for bail.

Heard the learned counsels for the parties.

It appears that trial has sufficiently progressed after bail prayer of the petitioner was rejected earlier. The Court is informed that three witnesses are remaining to be examined.

On merits the petitioner does not deserve a favourable order at this stage considering his prima facie involvement in the alleged offence.

In view of the above, prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

The learned Trial Court is directed to expedite the trial without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties.

Accordingly, the application for bail is disposed of.

Case diary be returned.

All parties shall act on the basis of server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties expeditiously after complying with all requisite formalities.
