....for the petitioners

Mr. Asif Dewan

..for the State

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submits as follows. The prime accused has already been arrested in this case. No grievous injury was inflicted on any of the victims. Although there is an allegation that bombs were hurled, there is no seizure for burnt articles.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State relies on the case diary and opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail. There are statements of eye-witnesses including independent ones, which clearly take the name of the present petitioners. There are serious injuries inflicted on vital parts of the bodies of the victims including on head. Soon thereafter, live bombs were recovered from the house of a co-accused and arms were also recovered from another co-accused.

Considering the serious nature of allegations and the fact that investigation is going on, I do not think that this is a fit case for granting anticipatory bail.

Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail to the petitioners are rejected.
