Mr. Prasanta Kumar Roy
Mr. Dyutiman Banerjee
Mr. Bodhisattya Halder

....for the petitioner

This application under Article 227 of the Constitution of India is at the instance of the complainant praying for a direction upon the District Consumer Commission, Purba Bardhaman to dispose of the Consumer Complaint Case No.100 of 2023 expeditiously.

The learned advocate appearing for the petitioner places reliance upon Section 38(7) of the Consumer Protection Act, 2019 in support of his contention that every complaint has to be disposed of within a period of three months from the date of service of notice upon the opposite parties.

In view of the order sought and proposed to be passed there is no necessity to direct issuance of any notice upon the opposite parties. However, the learned advocate for the petitioner shall be obliged to forward a copy of this application along with this order upon the opposite parties or upon the learned advocates representing the opposite parties before the District

Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission, Purba Bardhaman.

The learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the complaint case is otherwise ready for hearing.

In the light of the submission made by the learned advocate appearing for the petitioner, CO 1701 of 2025 stands disposed of by requesting the learned District Consumer Commission, Purba Bardhman to make an endeavour to see that the Consumer Complaint Case No.100 of 2023 is disposed of as expeditiously as possible without granting any unnecessary adjournments to either of the parties preferably by the end of the month of September, 2025.

There will be no order as to costs.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
