Mr. Arindam Jana

Mr. Yuvraj Chatterjee
Mr. S. Nag
Mr. S. Das ... for the Petitioner

Mr. Zareen Nasima Khan
Mr. Sumya Basu Roy Chowdhury ... For the State

The petitioner is in custody for more than three years and prays for bail.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that only two out of ten witnesses have been examined in full and examination of the third witness is going on. The petitioner has no criminal antecedent. His further detention is not required.

Opposing the prayer, learned counsel for the State submits that fake Indian currency notes to the tune of Rs.3.00 lakhs have been recovered from the possession of the petitioner. The prosecution proposes to examine nine witnesses in all and shall conclude such examination within six months from the next date of evidence fixed before the learned trial Court.

I have considered material on record. Huge amount of fake currency notes have been recovered from the petitioner. Trial is in progress. Considering the material on record prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

Learned trial Court is directed to take the proceedings to its logical conclusion in the light of the submission made on behalf of the State without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties, in accordance with law.

The bail application is disposed of.

Case Diary is returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
