Vs.
Smt. Sima Mitra nee Sikdar

Ms. Sambrita B. Chatterjee
Mr. Amit Nandi

...for the petitioner

This application under Article 227 of the Constitution of India is at the instance of the husband/petitioner praying for a direction upon the learned Additional District Judge, Fast Track Court at Baruipur to dispose of Matrimonial Suit No.42 of 2023 expeditiously.

The learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that repeated dates have been fixed for reconciliation and the wife/opposite party has not appeared on the dates fixed for reconciliation. She further submits that the wife/opposite party has filed the written statement.

In view of the order sought and proposed to be passed there is no necessity to direct issuance of any notice upon the opposite party. However, the learned advocate for the petitioner shall be obliged to forward a copy of this application along with this order upon the opposite party or the learned advocate representing the opposite party before the learned trial judge.

From the order sheets appended to this application, this Court finds that repeated dates have been fixed for reconciliation. If on the next date the parties or any one of the parties do not appear for reconciliation, the learned trial judge is requested to proceed with the suit in accordance with law.

In view thereof, CO 1830 of 2025 is disposed of by requesting the learned Additional District Judge, Fast Track Court at Baruipur to dispose of Matrimonial Suit No.42 of as expeditiously as possible without granting any unnecessary adjournments to either of the parties, provided the husband/petitioner is not in default in payment of any maintenance or alimony.

There will be no order as to costs.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
