In Re : Keshedul Sk. @ Sagar

... Petitioner

Mr. Jaydeep Biswas

Mr. Asraf Mandal

... for the Petitioner

Mr. Saibal Bapuli

Mr. Kunal Ganguly

... For the State

The petitioner is the husband of the victim and is in custody for more than hundred days. He prays for bail.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer.

I have considered the material on record. The victim breathed her last within ten days of her marriage. The post-mortem report indicates non-continuous ligature mark around her neck and asphixia following hanging by the neck. The incident occurred at her parental home. Some of the witnesses have stated that the petitioner had gone to visit the victim at her parental home on the same day. Whether the petitioner can be held responsible for the death of the victim shall be assessed at the appropriate stage of trial.

Considering the material available on record and extent of complicity of the petitioner in the alleged offence this Court is of the view that further detention of the petitioner is not required and he may be released on bail.

Accordingly prayer for bail is allowed.

The petitioner Keshedul Sk. @ Sagar, be released on bail upon furnishing bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Tehatta, Nadia subject to condition that he shall appear before the learned trial Court on every date of hearing. He shall not intimidate witnesses or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever.

In the event the petitioner fails to comply with any of the conditions as mentioned above without justifiable cause, the learned trial Court shall be at liberty to cancel his bail in accordance with law without further reference to this Court.

The application for bail is, thus, disposed of.

Case Diary be returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
