The petitioners are aggrieved by the order passed by the learned Sessions Judge, North 24 Parganas at Barasat on April 01, 2024 in Criminal Revision No. 72 of 2024.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that by an order passed on March 30, 2024 in case no. DGGI/PZU/INV/Gr-C/3647/2022-O/o ADG-DGGI-PZU the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Barasat observed that since the Court was lacking jurisdiction to deal with the matter, the matter be sent to the Court of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Pune through authorized officer. The said order was assailed by the opposite parties before the learned Sessions Judge, Barasat and by the order impugned the learned Sessions Judge stayed the order dated March 30, 2024 passed by the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Barasat subject to certain conditions. Learned counsel submits that that the matter is still pending before the learned Sessions Judge despite the petitioners submitting written objection to the revisional application before the said learned Court.

In view of pendency of the revisional application before the learned Sessions Judge, the learned Judge is directed to take the proceeding to its logical conclusion within one month from the date of communication of this order, upon granting reasonable opportunity of hearing to both the parties and without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties, in accordance with law.

CRR No. 2052 of 2024 is disposed of accordingly.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
