Heard learned counsels for the parties.

Peruse the case diary.

Considering the fact that the only material available against the petitioner is the statement of a co-accused, he has been able to rebut the restriction contained in Section 37 of the NDPS Act and as such, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

In the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (rupees ten thousand) with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 corresponding to Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023 and on the further conditions that the petitioner shall attend the Special Court regularly and shall surrender before the Special Court within four weeks and pray for bail and the petitioner shall not threaten or intimidate witnesses.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance of requisite formalities.
