Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in custody for about three years. He is the husband of the victim. No eye witness has been cited in the FIR. The prosecution is only banking upon the statement of the victim's minor son aged about six years recorded under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer.

I have considered the material on record. The petitioner's wife met with an unfortunate death in her matrimonial home. The minor son of the victim has implicated the petitioner in his statement recorded under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The offending weapon has been recovered from the petitioner's house pursuant to the leading statement of the petitioner.

Considering the gravity and nature of the offence and prima facie involvement of the petitioner therein, prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

The bail application is disposed of.

Case Diary is returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
