In Re : Isaran Bibi

... Petitioner.

Adv. Pronojit Roy,

... for the petitioner.

Adv. Antarikshya Basu,

Adv. Debolina Das,

... for the State.

The petitioner is in custody for 126 days.

The dispute is civil in nature. Charge sheet has been submitted. Her further detention is not required. She prays for bail.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer.

The petitioner has allegedly forged the signatures of the co-sharers of the property in question and has executed a deed in her favour by virtue of which she has mutated the said property in her name and thereafter gifted the same to her son who, in turn, sold out the same. The co-sharers have stated in their statements recorded under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure that they were about two to six years old when the alleged deed was executed and they have not put their signatures in the said deed.

This Court is informed that steps have been taken for cancellation of the deed. Charge sheet has been submitted. The petitioner is a lady. The case is primarily based on documents. Her further detention may not be required and she may be released on bail.

Accordingly, the prayer for bail is allowed.

The petitioner namely Isaran Bibi be released on bail upon furnishing bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Kalyani, Nadia subject to the condition that she shall appear before the learned trial Court on every date of hearing. She shall not intimidate witnesses or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever.

In the event the petitioner fails to appear before the learned trial Court on any date without justifiable cause, the learned trial Court shall be at liberty to cancel her bail in accordance with law without further reference to this Court.

The application for bail is disposed of.

Case Diary be returned.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
