In Re: An application for anticipatory bail under Section 482 of the B.N.S.S. filed on 13.06.2025 in connection with Ratua P.S. Case No.264/2025 dated 05.04.2025 under Sections 329(40/117(2)/118(2)/109/74/3(5) of B.N.S., 2023.

And

In the matter of: Majarul @ Md. Majharul & Ors.

... Petitioners

Ms. Minoti Gomes,
Mr. Imdadul Hoque

... for the petitioners

Mr. Prasun Kr. Dutta, Ld. APP,
Mr. S. Balial

... for the State

1. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioner and the de facto complainant are closely related and had a long pending dispute between them. Learned counsel submits that petitioner nos.1 and 2 are sons of petitioner no.3. Petitioner no.3 had two marriages and the children of the two marriages keep fighting with each other over their shares. The present incident was also in the form of free fight between the two parties. The petitioners herein also approach the police for registration of FIR. The police did not register the case and now the petitioners have approached the court of learned Magistrate for directing investigation.

2. Learned counsel for the State has produced the case diary. The court has gone through the injury report. Since it was a free fight and the parties are related to each other. The petitioners in the event of arrest be admitted to anticipatory bail on furnishing a personal bond of Rs.5,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of learned ACJM, Chanchal at Malda. Subject to the further condition that petitioners shall join the investigation as and when directed by the investigating officer and they shall not threaten, intimidate or tamper the prosecution witnesses.

3. The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, disposed of.

4. All parties shall act on the basis of the server copy of this order.
