... for the State

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is custody for more than a year. Co-accused have been granted bail. The petitioner deserves the same benefit.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer.

I have considered the material on record. The petitioner appears to be one of the principal assailants who inflicted injuries on the victims. One of the victims succumbed to his injuries. Charge sheet has been submitted. Offence, if proved, shall attract mandatory life imprisonment.

Considering the nature and gravity of the offence and prima facie involvement of the petitioner therein, prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

The learned trial Court is directed to take the proceedings to its logical conclusion as expeditiously as possible, without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties.

The bail application is disposed of.

Case Diary is returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
