Ms. Trisha Rakshit
Ms. Rajashree Tah
Mr. Aishwarya Datta
Ms. Bidisha Chakraborty
Ms. Sadia Parveen ... for the Petitioner.

Mr. Madhusudan Sur
Mr. Sandip Kundu ... for the State.

Report submitted by the State is taken on record.

The victim is not represented despite service.

Heard learned counsels for the parties.

The petitioner is in custody for more than 100 days and prays for bail.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer.

I have considered the material on record. The main thrust of the allegation is against the friend of the petitioner. Injury report does not support the allegations. The statement of the de facto complainant/victim in the written complaint, her statement under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and the injury report vary from one another. Charge sheet has been submitted. 15 witnesses are proposed to be examined by the prosecution. Charges are yet to be framed. There is remote possibility of trial being concluded in near future.

Considering the material on record and extent of complicity of the petitioner in the alleged offence, prayer for bail is allowed.

The petitioner be released on bail upon furnishing bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Purba Bardhaman subject to condition that he shall remain outside the jurisdiction of Galsi P.S. except for the purpose of appearing before the learned trial Court and shall furnish the address where he shall henceforth reside before the learned trial Court, investigating officer and the Officer in charge of the concerned P.S under whose jurisdiction he shall presently reside. The petitioner shall appear before the learned trial Court on every date of hearing fixed by the learned trial Court and shall not intimidate witnesses or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever.

In the event the petitioner fails to comply with any of the conditions as stated above without justifiable cause, the learned trial Court shall be at liberty to cancel his bail in accordance with law without further reference to this Court.

The application for bail is thus disposed of.

Case Diary be returned.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
