Mr. Sandeep Chakraborty
Sana Naaz

... For the State

The petitioner is in custody for 8 years and prays for bail solely on the ground of prolonged detention.

Opposing the prayer, learned counsel for the State submits that the petitioner murdered his wife and minor son and caused grievous hurt to one of his daughters who luckily survived. Two witnesses are left to be examined by the prosecution and such examination shall take three more months from the next date of evidence fixed by the learned trial Court to conclude subject to cooperation by the accused and systemic reasons.

Considering the gravity of the offence and prima facie involvement of the petitioner therein, the prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

Learned trial Court is directed to take the trial to its logical conclusion as expeditiously as possible without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties in the light of the submission made on behalf of the State.

The application for bail is disposed of.

Case diary be returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
