Mr. Asraf Mandal

... for the Petitioner

Mr. Partha Pratim Das

Mr. Arup Sarkar

... for the State

Bail prayer of the petitioner was turned down on several occasions by this Court as well as by the Hon'ble Supreme Court. The petitioner renews his prayer only on the ground of his prolonged incarceration for nearly six years.

Learned counsel for the State submits that the prosecution proposes to examine fifteen witnesses out of whom fourteen witnesses have already been examined. The last witness is remaining to be examined and examination shall be completed within a month from the next date fixed for evidence before the learned trial Court.

On merits, the petitioner does not deserve a favourable order at this stage. Since trial is at fag end, the learned trial Court is directed to expedite the trial and conclude the same within a reasonable time without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties.

Prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

The bail application is disposed of.

Case Diary is returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
