Learned counsel for the parties have placed a copy of the order dated 6.3.2024 passed in FMA 1407 of 2022.

It is submitted by the parties that vide the said order in appeal the Appellate Court has disposed of both the writ applications being WPA 13685 of 2022 and WPA 18387 of 2022

On perusal of the order in appeal placed before this Court , it appears that the Hon'ble Division Bench has considered the case of the mother-in-law and daughter-in-law , the petitioners in the two writ petitions before this Court and passed certain directions on imposing certain conditions.

None of the parties appear to be aggrieved by the said order in appeal and have accepted the same.

Considering the said facts, the writ petitions being WPA 13685 of 2022 and WPA 18387 of 2022 accordingly stand disposed of in view of the order dated 6.3.2024 passed in FMA No. 1407 of 2022.

Let the copy of the order be kept with the record.

Connected application, if any, stands disposed of.

Interim order, if any, stands vacated.

Urgent Photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the learned counsel for the parties on usual undertakings.
