C.R.M. (A) 2142 OF 2025

In re : An application for anticipatory bail under Section 482 of the of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 in connection with Chapra Police Station Case No. 369 of 2025 dated 03.04.2025 under Sections 126(2)/117(2)/110/351(3) & 3(5) of BNS, 2023.

In the matter of : Intajul Shaikh.

... petitioner

Mr. Sumanta Das,
Mr. A Tripathi,
Mr. Sayantika Sahu

.....for the Petitioner.

Mr. Ranabir Roy Chowdhury,
Ms. Pushpita Saha

... for the State

Learned counsel for the petitioner stated that co-accused Rafikul Shaikh has already been admitted anticipatory bail by the learned Sessions Judge. Learned counsel on parity seeks anticipatory bail of the present petitioner.

Learned counsel for the state has opposed the bail petition on the ground that the present petitioner is a principal offender and he assaulted the victim.

I have seen the injury report. Perusal of the record also indicates that it was the petitioner who was the principal offender and assaulted the victim. The parity cannot be brought into play as the role attributed to the co-accused were different.

Taken into the facts and circumstances of this case the petitioner is not entitled to anticipatory bail.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, duly applied for, be given to the parties upon compliance of all usual requisite formalities.
