Smt. Shobharani Adihikari
Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Baisali Ghoshal

... for the petitioner

Mr. Rezaul Hossain

... for the State

The father of the petitioner was an Assistant Teacher of a primary school who retired from service on 28.05.1987 and died on 10.10.1993 and also mother of the petitioner had died on 22.01.2011. The mother of the petitioner had completed all pension related formalities and pension payment order was issued and after death of the mother of the petitioner the P.P.O. issued on 09.09.2024 as widow daughter family pension. However, the concerned authorities delayed and released the family pension amount on 24.09.2024. The petitioner herein seeks interest to be paid on the arrear family pension amount from 05.03.2019 for the interim period of delay in receipt of the arrear pension amount.

There is a considerable delay in filing of the writ petition, which the petitioner seeks to justify by stating that there is no statutory period of limitation and neither of the parties has suffered due to this delay. It is the submission of the petitioner that accordingly the petition should be allowed. The petitioner relies upon an order in

W.P. No. 17557 (W) of 2017 (Narayan Chandra Saha Vs. State of West Bengal & Ors.) wherein a co-ordinate Bench had relied upon the Supreme Court judgement in the case of Union of India Vs. Tarsem Singh, reported in (2008) 8 S.C.C. 648 on the issue of limitation relating to payment or re-fixation of pay or pension wherein the Apex Court had held that relief may be granted in spite of delay as it does not affect the rights of the third party.

In view of the above and after hearing the learned Counsel for the parties, I direct the Director of Pension, Provident Fund and Group Insurance, Government of West Bengal as also the concerned Treasury Officer to pay interest to the petitioner @8% per annum on the arrear family pension amount calculated from 05.03.2019 till the date of payment.

Such payment is to be made within a period of eight weeks from the date of communication of this order.

The writ petition is, thus, disposed of, however, no order as to costs.

Since no affidavit is called for, the allegations made in the writ petition are deemed to have been denied.

All parties shall act in terms of the copy of the order downloaded from the official website of this Court.
