...for the University

The petitioner alleges non-compliance with the order dated May 19, 2025, by the University.

Mr. Amitava Chaudhuri, learned counsel representing the University submits that the University has already complied with the order. The petitioner is continuing with the fourth semester. She has been allowed to take part in the internal examinations as well.

In view of the submission made by the University, there is no necessity to keep this contempt application pending.
