..for the State

Heard the learned counsels for the parties.

Perused the case diary.

Considering the nature of allegations, the materials available in the case diary including verification report of birth certificate of one of the accused being the petitioner no.2 contained at Page 123 of the case diary and the fact that investigation is going on over documents already seized, I do not think that custodial interrogation of the petitioners is required in this case and I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, the application for anticipatory bail of the petitioners is allowed.

In the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- each with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 corresponding to Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023 and on further conditions that the petitioners shall co-operate with investigation.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, disposed of.
