And

In the matter of: Rintu Mondal

....Applicant/Petitioner.

Mr. Santanu Talukdar
Mr. Amanul Islam
Mr. Sourav Mukherjee

...for the petitioner

Mr. Prasun Kr. Dutta
Mr. Dipankar Mahata

..for the State

Affidavit of service filed on behalf of the petitioner is taken on record.

No one appears on behalf of the de facto complainant.

Heard the learned counsels for the parties.

Perused the case diary.

Considering the materials available in the case diary including statement of the victim recorded before the learned Magistrate stating that she had given some money to the petitioner and the petitioner created trouble when she asked for the money and the fact that she refused medical examination, I do not think that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is required in this case and I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, the application for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is allowed.

In the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 corresponding to Section 482(2) of the BNSS, 2023 and on further conditions that the petitioner shall not threaten or intimidate witnesses and shall co-operate with investigation. The petitioner shall meet the I.O. once a fortnight till submission of report in final form.

The application for anticipatory bail is, thus, disposed of.
