... for the State

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in custody for more than six months. Charge sheet has been submitted. He has been falsely implicated. He was not found at the place of occurrence at the time of the incident. He prays for bail.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer.

The petitioner appears to be the master mind of a racket which conspired to murder the victim and ultimately the work was executed by three shooters who were appointed by the brother in law of the petitioner at his behest. The offending weapons have been recovered from the petitioner's house pursuant to his leading statement. Debit of Rs.5.00 lakhs from the bank account of the petitioner corroborates his statement given in course of investigation.

Considering the extent of involvement of the petitioner in the alleged offence, prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

The bail application is disposed of.

Case Diary is returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
