In Re : Enamul Sekh @ Enamul Haque

Mr. Tapodip Gupta

... For the Petitioner.

Mr. Debabrata Chatterjee

Mr. Sobhan Gani

... For the State

The petitioner is in custody or more than a year and prays for bail.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer.

I have considered the material on record. Low quality fake Indian Currency Notes amounting to Rs.3,00,000/- have been recovered from the possession of the petitioner. The petitioner has two criminal antecedents. He has been granted bail in both the cases since his name had transpired only from the statement of the co-accused. The petitioner is in custody for more than a year. Charge sheet has been submitted. Trial has commenced. Therefore his further detention is not required and he may be granted bail subject to stringent conditions.

Accordingly, the prayer for bail is allowed.

The petitioner namely Enamul Sekh @ Enamul Haque shall be released on bail upon furnishing bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Calcutta subject to condition that he shall remain within the jurisdiction of the learned trial Court and shall furnish the address where he shall presently reside before the learned trial Court, the investigating officer and the concerned officer in charge of the police station under whose jurisdiction he shall presently reside. He shall appear before the learned trial Court on every date of hearing fixed by the learned trial Court. He shall not tamper with evidence or intimidate witnesses in any manner whatsoever.

In the event the petitioner fails to adhere to any of the conditions stated hereinabove, the learned trial Court shall be at liberty to cancel his bail in accordance with law without further reference to this Court.

The application for bail is disposed of.

Case diary be returned.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
