... for the State

Heard learned counsels for the parties.

The petitioner is in custody for more than a year and prays for bail.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that charge sheet has been submitted and trial is in progress. His further detention is not required.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer.

I have considered the material on record. It appears that low quality counterfeit currency notes were recovered from the possession of the petitioner. Search and seizure are complete. Charge sheet has been submitted. The petitioner is in custody for more than a year. His further detention is not required and he may be released on bail subject to stringent conditions.

Accordingly, prayer for bail is allowed.

The petitioner Obaidul Hoque @ Abdul, be released on bail upon furnishing bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Chanchal, Malda subject to condition that he shall remain within the jurisdiction of Chanchal Court and shall furnish the address where he shall presently reside before the learned trial Court, Investigating Officer and the Officer in Charge of the concerned police station under whose jurisdiction he shall henceforth reside. He shall appear before the learned trial Court on every date of hearing. He shall not intimidate witnesses or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever.

In the event the petitioner fails to adhere to any of the conditions mentioned above without justifiable cause, the learned trial Court shall be at liberty to cancel his bail in accordance with law without further reference to this Court.

The application for bail is, thus, disposed of.

Case Diary be returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
