... For the State

The petitioner is in custody for more than 4 years and prays for bail.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the case is based on circumstantial evidence and there is no eye witness to the same.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer.

I have considered the material on record. The husband of the victim has implicated the petitioner in his statement recorded under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The petitioner was arrested from the place of occurrence along with the offending weapon soon after the alleged incident. Three more witnesses are left to be examined. Trial is on the verge of completion.

Considering the material on record, prayer for bail is rejected at this stage.

The application for bail is disposed of.

Case diary be returned.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
